   (b) specify and regulate the powers and duties of any authority of the University, any other matter connected with the University or any of its authorities;
   (c) determine whether any particular matter is to be treated as an academic or non-academic matter for the purposes of this Law and of any Statutes, regulation or other instrument made thereunder;
(d) make provisions for any other matter for which provision is authorised by Statute of this Law; and
(e) regulate the admission of students by the University and their discipline and welfare.

2. subject to the provisions of this Law, the interpretation Act shall apply in relation to any Statute made under this Section as it applies to a subsidiary instrument within the meaning of section 27(1) of interpretation Act.

3. the statute contained in the second schedule to this Law shall be deemed to have come into force on the commencement of this Law and shall be deemed to have been made under this Section.

4. the power to make statutes conferred by this Section shall not be prejudiced or limited in any way by reason of the inclusion or omission of any matter in or from the Statute contained in the second schedule to this Law or any subsequent Statute.

16) Regulatory power to make statutes

1. the power of the University to make Statutes shall be exercised in accordance with the provision of this Section and not otherwise.
2. a proposed Statute shall not become Law unless it has been approved in the following manner:
   a) at a meeting of the Senate by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting; and
   b) at a meeting of the Council, by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting.
3. a proposed Statute may originate either in the Senate or in the Council, and may be approved by sub-section 2 of this Section by either one of those bodies before the other.
4. a Statute which makes provisions for or alters the composition or constitution of the Council and Senate or provides for the establishment of a new campus or college or for the amendment or revocation of any statute whereby a campus or college is established, shall not come into operation unless it has been approved by the Executive Council in consultation with National Universities.
5. for the purpose of Section (2) of the interpretation Act, a Statute shall be treated as being made on the date in which it is approved by Council, after having being duly approved by the Senate or on the date at which it is approved by the Senate after duly being approved by Council, as the case may be or, in the case of a Statute falling within sub-section 4 of this Section, on the date which it is approved by the visitor.

17) Proof of Statute

a Statute may be proved in any court by the production of a copy bearing or having affixed to it a certificate purporting to be signed by the Vice-Chancellor or Registrar to the effect that the copy is a true copy of a Statute of the University;

18) Power of the Visitor

1) In the event of any doubt or dispute arising at anytime as to the meaning of any provision of a Statute, the matter shall be referred to the Visitor, who shall give advice and take decision thereon as he shall think fit.

2) The decision of the Visitor on any matter referred to him under this Section shall be binding.

3) the references in sub-section 2 of this Section to any question as to the meaning of any provision of a Statute shall include reference to any question as to whether any matter is for the said purposes an academic or a non-academic matter concerning the University provided that the visitor shall act in consultation with the Osun State House of Assembly in exercising his powers under this section.

19) Visitor of the University

1. The Governor of Osun State shall be the Visitor of the University

2. The Visitor shall often as the circumstances may require not being less than once every five years, conduct a visitation to the University or direct that a visitation be conducted by a person as the Visitors may deem fit in respect of any affairs of the University
3. a) It shall be the duty of the University to make available to the Visitor and to any other person (s) conducting a visitation in pursuance of this section, all facilities, information and assistance as he or they may reasonably require for the purposes of a visitation; and

b) To give effect to any directives which may be given by the Visitor or any other bodies or persons as may authorized by the Visitor in consequence of a visitation

20) Removal of a Council Member

If it appears to the Council that a member of the Council (other than the Pro-Chancellor or the Vice-Chancellor) should be removed from office on the grounds of misconduct or inability to perform the functions of his office, employment or other grounds which the Council shall determine in writing to be a reasonable justification for his removal, the Council shall make a recommendation to that effect to the Visitor and if approved, shall direct the removal of the person from office.

21) Removal and Discipline of Academic and Administrative Staff

1. If it appears to the Council that there are reasons for believing that any person employed as a member of the academic or Professional Staff of the University other than the Vice-Chancellor, shall be removed from his office on grounds of misconduct or inability to perform the functions of his office, the Council shall:

a) give notice of those reasons to the person in writing and afford the person an opportunity to make representation on the matter to the Council;
b) set up a Committee in each case to investigate the matter and report to it; and
c) afford the person an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by the investigating ad-hoc committee with respect to the matter, and if the Council after considering the report of the investigating ad-hoc committee, is satisfied that the person should be removed, the Council may so remove him by an instrument in writing signed on the directives of the Council.

2. The Vice-Chancellor may, in a case of misconduct by a member of staff which in his opinion, is prejudicial to the interest of the University, suspend the member and the suspension shall within three months be reported to the Council.

3. a member of staff may be suspended from his duties or his appointment may be terminated by the Council for a “good cause”. “Good cause” for the purpose of this section means:

a) Conviction for any offence by a competent court which the Council considers unfit for the discharge of the functions of his office
b) Any physical or mental incapacity which the Council, after obtaining medical advice considers to be capable of rendering the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his office
c) Conduct of a scandalous or other disgraceful nature, which the Council considers to be capable of rendering the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his office; or
d) Conduct, which the Council considers may constitute failure or inability of the person concerned to discharge the function of his office or to comply with the terms and conditions of his service.

4. Any person suspended pursuant to sub-section (3) of this Section shall be placed on half pay and the Council shall before the expiration of a period of three months after the date of suspension consider the case against that person and come to a decision as to the following:

a) whether the person’s suspension should continue and if so on what terms;
b) whether to reinstate the person, in which case the Council shall restore his full emoluments to him with effect from the date of suspension;
c) whether to terminate the appointment of the person concerned in which case, the person will not be entitled to the proportion of his emoluments withheld during the period of suspension; and whether to take any lesser disciplinary action against the person (including the restoration of the proportion of his emoluments that might have been withheld as the Council may determine)

Where the council pursuant to this section decides to take further disciplinary action against the person, the Council shall before the expiration of a further period of three months from the decision, come to a final determination in respect of the case concerning the person.

5. It shall be the duty of the person by whom an instrument of removal is signed in pursuance of this section to use his best endeavours to cause a copy of the instrument to be served as soon as reasonably practicable on the person to whom it relates

6. Nothing in the foregoing provision of this section shall prevent the Council from making regulations for the discipline of other categories of staff and workers of the University as may be prescribed.

22) Discipline of Students

1) Subject to the provision of this Section, where it appears to the Senate that any Student of the University has been guilty of misconduct, the Vice-Chancellor may without prejudice to any other disciplinary powers conferred on him by Statute or Regulations direct:

a) That the Student shall not during the period as may be specified in the directives, participate in the activities of the University

b) That the activities of the Student shall during the period as may be specified in the directives; be restricted

c) That the Student be rusticated for a period as may be specified in the directives; or

d) That the student be expelled from the University.

2) Where a directive is given under sub-section 1 (c) and (d) of this Section in respect of any student within the prescribed period and in the prescribed manner, appeal to the Council and where an appeal is brought, the Council shall after causing inquiry to be made into the matter, either confirm or set aside the directive or modify it in such a manner as the Council may deem fit.

3) The fact that an appeal from a directive is brought in pursuance to sub-section (2), shall not affect the question of the directive while the appeal is pending.
4) The Vice-Chancellor may delegate his power under this section to a disciplinary board consisting of the members of the University nominated by the Senate.

5) Nothing in this Section shall be construed as preventing the restriction or termination of a student’s activity at the University other than on the grounds of misconduct.

6) It is hereby declared that a directive under subsection (1) (a) of this Section, may be combined with a directive under sub-section 1 (b) of this Section.

23) Financial Year and Account

1) The Council shall fix financial year for the purpose of the Account of the University.

2) The Council shall cause proper account to be kept in respect of each financial year and proper records to be kept of the assets of the University.
