UNIOSUN WILL SUPPORT AND ENCOURAGE VIBRANT AND RESPONSIVE UNIONISM,

The Acting Vice-Chancellor of Osun State University, Professor Ganiyu Olatunde, has promised that the Management of the institution would continue to support and encourage vibrant and responsive unionism in the institution.

The Vice-Chancellor gave this remark while receiving the leadership of Senior Staff Association of Nigerian Universities (SSANU) who paid him a courtesy visit in his office on Wednesday, 31st October, 2012.

In his speech, the Vice-Chancellor said ‘I want to assure you that as a responsible management, we will continue to support vibrant and responsive Unionism. Union Members are partners in progress, particularly if they relate well and understand what is going on in their environment.’ Considering the importance of SSANU in any tertiary institution, he expressed his happiness and that it was high time the Union was inaugurated in the institution.

In his response, the National Representative of SSANU, Comr. Alesinloye Abimbola Muraina leading two others, Comr. Kolajo Funmilola S. and Comr. Oyelami Isaac Adesoye, thanked the Management for receiving them.

At the event were the Registrar, Dr. Julius Faniran; Ag. Provost of the College of Humanities and Culture, Dr. Kizito Folorunso; Director of Development Office, Dr. Samuel Gbadebo Odewumi and other senior members of staff.

ASUU SAYS OGBENI RIGHTLY EXERCISES HIS POWERS, CONGRATULATES FANIRAN AND LASISI ON THEIR RE-APPOINTMENT

The Academic Staff Union of Universities (ASUU), Osun State University branch, has joined other well-wishers to congratulate Dr. Julius Olusakin Faniran and Alhaji Fatai Adebayo Lasisi on their re-appointment by the Visitor and Governor of the State of Osun, Ogbeni Rauf Aregbesola, as Registrar and Bursar respectively for the second and final tenure.

The Union in a separate letter dated 15th October, 2012, signed by Oluseye Abiona and Oloasebikan Wende, stated that ASUU at its Congress of 11th October, 2012 had been convinced beyond any reasonable doubt that the Governor of the State rightly exercised his powers in accordance with the relevant provisions of the law that the established the University, by re-appointing the two principal officers.

The Union prayed for them and pledged its unalloyed and unconditional support to their offices in particular and the management in general.

The Union, however, advised both the Registrar and the Bursar to ensure they continue to work towards the promotion of the welfare of its members more than ever before.

MATRICULATION HOLDS ON 20TH NOVEMBER, 2012

The Senate has amended the academic calendar of the University.

According to the amended calendar, the 2012/2013 matriculation exercise will now hold on 20th November, 2012.

The Registrar, in a statement, advised all fresh students to note the new date and complete their registration before then.

NYSC 2012 Batch ‘C’ Mobilisation: Don’t spoil our name … Olatunde warns; don’t lobby for place of primary assignment, NYSC State Director advises

The Acting Vice-Chancellor of Osun State University, Professor Ganiyu Olatunde, has warned the second set of graduates of the institution being mobilized for the NYSC service year not to spoil the name of the University. Professor Olatunde gave this admonition during the briefing organized by the National Youth Service Corps, held at the Main Auditorium of the institution. He said: ‘This (UNIOSUN) is one of the best universities in the country in terms of academic development because all our 32 programmes have received full accreditation. As you are going for the service year, please don’t spoil the good name of the university’. He then urged them to go and excel.

In his briefing, the Director-General of NYSC, Brigadier-General Nnamdi Okore-Affia represented by the NYSC State Coordinator, Mrs. Mojisola Adeola Eboagwun, advised them on challenges they were likely to encounter during their service year. She warned them not to lobby for place of primary assignment. She pointed out that nobody can win any award without community development project and advised the prospective corps members to have a personal community project. She congratulated Miss Olubunmi Jegede who won an NYSC award. Miss Jegede later shared her service year experience with the prospective corps members and urged them to be ready to show good example.

At the ceremony were the NYSC officials, Dr (Mrs) Janet Olaitan, Acting Dean of Student Affairs; Dr. Bolaji Omitola, Dr. Monsuru Adeleke, and other officials.
